

Rule 6.4.3 (Redline)

The passive play of a bingo game using an electronic bingo aid device is prohibited. Players must physically enter each number called by either manually entering the number or by touching a button or a screen icon.

Argument for Allowing Passive Play

Allowing passive play could make bingo more inclusive, enjoyable, and efficient, benefiting both players and charitable organizations. With appropriate safeguards, Colorado could modernize its charitable gaming regulations while maintaining integrity and player protection.