

Notice: 2026 Major Contributor Reporting Period (Primary Election)

The reporting period for major contributor reports as it relates to the June 30, 2026, Primary Election begins on Sunday, May 31, 2026, and runs through Monday, June 29, 2026. Section 1-45-108(2.5) C.R.S., requires the filing of major contributor reports no later than twenty-four (24) hours after receipt of a major contribution. A major contribution is defined as a contribution, including loans by a candidate to their own committee, of $1,000 or more at any time within 30 days before a primary, general, or regular biennial school election.

The major contributor report is due in addition to regularly scheduled contribution and expenditure reports. The TRACER system will automatically generate a major contributor report upon entry of a qualifying contribution into the system. Data entry of qualifying contributions into TRACER should be completed on the day they are received to avoid late penalties.

For your convenience, several contribution scenarios have been included below. These scenarios can be used as a guide in determining whether or not a major contributor report is required by law. If you need assistance or have additional questions, you can reach Campaign Finance Support by e-mail at cpfhelp@coloradosos.gov, or by telephone at 303-894-2200 (dial 3 then 1).

This applies to:

- ALL political parties, and
- ALL candidate committees whose office appears on a 2026 ballot.
 - Note: A candidate contributing/loaning $1,000 or more to their own candidate committee will trigger a major contributor report that must be filed.

This does NOT apply to:

- 527 Political Organizations,
- Independent Expenditure Committees, and
- Issue committees as it pertains to the June 30, 2026, primary election.

Contribution Scenarios

Scenario 1: Contributor X gives you a $1,250 contribution via check on May 26, 2026, and you deposit it on May 28, 2026; are you required to file a major contributor report? If so, when is the report due?

Answer: No major contributor report is due because the contribution was not received or deposited within 30 days before the Primary election.

Scenario 2: Contributor Y gives you a $1,050 contribution via check on June 9th and you deposit it on June 11th; are you required to file a major contributor report? If so, when is the report due?

Answer: Yes, a major contributor report is due because 1) the contribution is $1,000 or more and 2) date received/deposited is within 30 days before the Primary election. The report is due no later than 24 hours after the received date input into TRACER for the contribution.

Note: The reference chart below is for determining the date of a contribution per Campaign and Political Finance Rule 10.4:

Contribution Type	Acceptance Date
Check	The date the check is received at the earliest, or the deposit date at the latest. If the committee receives a contribution / donation by check or money order within five business days before the end of a reporting period, the committee must deposit or return the contribution before the end of the reporting period (Rule 10.4.1)
Cash	The date cash enters the committee's possession (Rule 10.4.2)
Credit card, PayPal, or other intermediary service	The date the contributor or donor authorizes the payment, or if unknown, the date the payment intermediary transfers the contribution or donation (Rule 10.4.3)
Non-monetary (in-kind)	The date the contribution or donation enters the committee's possession, or the date the committee has the right to possess or use the item (Rule 10.4.5)
Any other contribution type	The date the contribution or donation is accepted (Rule 10.4.7)

Scenario 3: Contributor Z gives you a $900 contribution via check on June 2nd and you deposit it on June 3rd; are you required to file a major contributor report? If so, when is the report due?

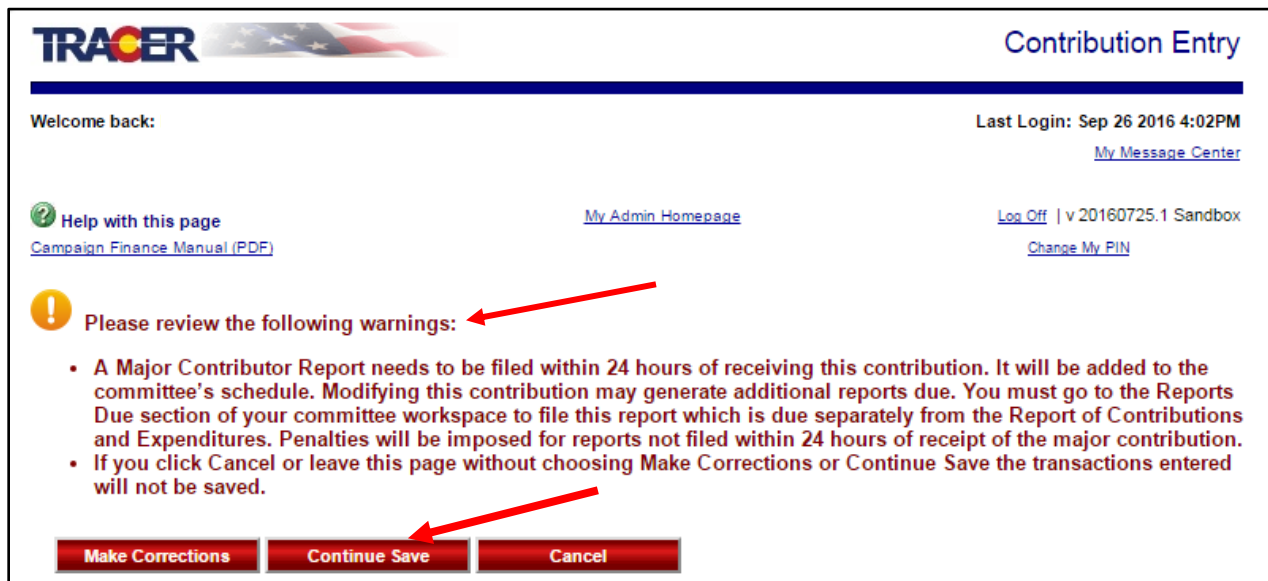

Answer: No major contributor report is due because the amount contributed is less than $1,000.

Scenario 4: Contributor V gives you a $400 contribution on June 16th and then a $750 contribution on June 24th; are you required to file a major contributor report or reports? If so, when is the report or reports due?

Answer: Although Contributor V contributed more than a $1,000 within 30 days before the Primary election, no single contribution was equal to or greater than $1,000; therefore, no major contributor report is required.
